PROJECTS

Electro - Hub

This project was based upon the idea of zomato. As zomato delivers the food from the near by restaurants to our home, this website is made for the delivery of the electronic items to be delivered at your homes. You can buy or sell your items from this website in your near by area or the city .

Pet Adoption System

Social media sites like Facebook and Instagram are used by users to share stories about available pets. Although this approach is quite ineffective, it can be made better. By raising awareness, facilitating access to resources, and enhancing the adoption procedure.
